

GOOD NEWS FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE

March 11, 2019

Dear Parents,

Spring Break starts this Thursday, March 14th! We come back on March 25th. PLEASE be sure that you are present and ready to learn on March 25th! We are going for 100% Attendance.

April 2nd starts State Testing! It is imperative that your children are here EVERY SINGLE DAY during this time! If your kids aren't here on time, then we cannot start testing on time! Please make you sure you have made every effort to be here and be here on time. If you need help with this, please contact the office.

We still have plenty of yearbooks for sale! We have only sold approximately 30 yearbooks this year. We have to purchase 200 yearbooks in order to keep the price low, so buy yours now! If you haven't seen our yearbooks, you are missing out! Sales start at $ 12.00 for a softback, and hardbacks start at $ 17.00. They make for great memories, so get yours today! This is the last week to purchase you must have your order in by Wednesday March 13th.

Prepare for Inclement Weather

In case of inclement weather this winter, please be aware of the following TPS guidelines for school closings: The closing of schools for inclement weather or other acts of nature shall be announced by the superintendent. Notification of such closing shall be made via the local news media, www.tulsaschools.org, a recording on the main switchboard (918-746-6800) and the social networking sites Facebook and Twitter (www.facebook.com/TPSInfo and twitter.com/TulsaSchools). Don't forget to download the free app SchoolWay, get updates anywhere and anytime from Jones Elementary and Tulsa Public Schools.
